Elsewhere Online: Ten Things to Learn This School Year

Guy Kawasaki has some great advice for students, and the rest of us, in this post from Let the Good Times Roll, his blog.

Items include How to negotiate, how to have a conversation, and, most importantly, How to figure out anything on your own. This last one should be at the top of everyone's list. It has served me well over the years and will do the same for you.

Ten Things to Learn This School Year

I'm on the campus of UCSB this week at family camp, and it's inspired me to blog about what students should learn in order to prepare for the real world after graduation. This is an opportune time to broach this subject because the school year is about to begin, and careers can still be affected. (Continues)
